

The Last Ninja

One day in the village of ninja. The grand master of all the ninja have discovered something that can give the power to someone that have a pure heart it's call the elements candy. Now the story began.

He has got two of the elements candy. He ate one and the other one he decided to give to the person that won the tournament, but something bad happen before the tournament. The samurai just came they said that they wanted money for their village, but the grand master didn't accepted the deal because they have to use the money to make the tournament, but the samurai didn't cared so they destroyed the village, killed all the people and stole all the money. They thought that they have killed all the people, but there are still one left his name is Kabuto. He has survived he used the stealth skill that his father taught him to fight in tournament. He walked out from the safe place he looked around and he saw one samurai left checking the place. They saw each other, the samurai chased him a long time, but he can't catch Kabuto. Then suddenly Kabuto fell into the pit. The samurai thought that he is death, but no he stilled alive because he just used hover skill in time. He climbed up the pit and went back to the village. He opened the grand master house and he saw that the grand master called him and gave the elements candy to him. The grand master told him that when he used the power doesn't get angry and then he pass away. Kabuto carried his body and make a grave for him Kabuto left the village and went back to the pit that he fell into he hear someone told him to jump so he jumped over the pit. He surprise because he can't do that before he thought that this is the power of the elements candy. Kabuto saw something far away from the point that he stand he went to there and he found that it's a shop he went in and saw a lot of ninja weapon he ask the shopkeeper told him that he have everything he want s o the shopkeeper gave him the things he want. Kabuto gave him money and went out from the shop when he walked out he saw some trail he followed the trail and he founded out that the trail lead to the samurai village. He went to the samurai master room and challenges him to fight him. The samurai master accepts the challenge and fought Kabuto. They fought a long time then Kabuto dropped his sword he called his pet to fight for him and then he hurried and ran out of that room. He saw a samurai he subdued him and stole his sword he saw another two ninjas he heard that they talked about something so he listened to them. The samurai told another samurai that if someone can kill the samurai master all the samurai will die. Kabuto heard that and then he subdued them both he went back to the samurai master room and he founded out that his pet was death then the samurai master told him about his village in a bad way that he doesn't heard before the story made Kabuto angry. He released all of his power but he remembered that the grand master told him don't be angry so he cool down his mind and shot his power to the samurai master. He lost to Kabuto and then he die all the samurai die too like that samurai told him. Kabuto tried to find people and make a new ninja village then he found a normal village he ask that did they like to be ninja and they like to be so he got a new village and become a grand master.

The words "The End" are written in a large, colorful, sans-serif font. Each letter is a different color: 'T' is pink, 'h' is red, 'e' is yellow, 'E' is green, and 'n' is blue. The text is set against a white background with a subtle shadow effect beneath the letters.