

I enjoy Bell classes because we speak entirely in English throughout the class. I would consider my favourite thing to do during Bell classes as doing English activities with friends, such as miming a word that they can guess. To me, Bell classes are a lot more practical than other classes. We can use what we learn in Bell classes to communicate with other people around the world, and I think it helps a lot when I go abroad.

-Oak 3/3